

Immuno-Shield™ All Season Wellness contains a unique blend of nutrients for comprehensive immune support.* The ingredients in this formula act in three distinct ways to support the body's natural defense mechanisms:

- Vitamins/Minerals/Antioxidant Support: This supplement contains antioxidant vitamins C and E and the mineral zinc to fortify the immune system and enhance the body's natural defense mechanisms.
- Multi-Herb Blend: This formula contains Echinacea to boost a healthy immune response and Andrographis, an Asian herbal extract, for immune function. The popular Chinese herb Astragalus, is combined with Cat's Claw, Olive leaf and Oregano oil, to support overall immune health.
- Respiratory System Health: Bioflavonoids are powerful antioxidants that fight free radicals and help maintain healthy respiratory functioning. Vitamin E's antioxidant properties may also support respiratory health by protecting cells from damaging free radicals.

Immuno-Shield All Season Wellness provides broad-based support for the immune system.* It helps nourish the body to strengthen resistance and maintain wellness, no matter what time of year.*
