

Support your bones now so they'll support you later.

- Provides more calcium and vitamin D than drinking 3 glasses of whole milk, without the fat and calories
- Contains the right balance of calcium and phosphorus for active absorption*
- Research indicates calcium with phosphorus is up to five times better absorbed than other forms of calcium*
- Calcium supports and maintains optimum bone health* and may reduce the risk of osteoporosis†

*Osteoporosis affects middle-aged and older persons. A lifetime of regular exercise and a healthy diet that includes calcium builds and maintains good bone health and may reduce the risk of osteoporosis later in life. Daily intakes above 2,000 mg are not likely to provide any additional benefit to bone health.
