For the maintenance of healthy eyes, skin and mucous membranes, Vitamin A is essential.[†] In addition, it is required to support a healthy immune system.[†] Our vitamin A is from cod liver oil to provide a natural source of this important fat-soluble vitamin.

In compliance with State of California health laws, be advised this product contains Vitamin A in a daily dosage in excess of 10,000 IU. Large amounts of Vitamin A are known to cause birth defects or other reproductive harm. Children, women who are pregnant, or women who may become pregnant should not use this product except under the advice of a physician.
