

This formula is a unique blend of phytocannabinoids, from mature hemp stalks and stems, with medium chain triglyceride (MCT) oil, derived from coconut oil, to provide a concentrated blend of support for your endocannabinoid system. MCT oil not only improves insulin resistance, increases energy, facilitates cognitive functioning and supports fat loss, it is also the perfect carrier for fat soluble, CBD oil. This blend of phytocannabinoids was designed to balance your nervous system to lower stress and anxiety, decrease inflammation, support pain management and improve sleep. (Non-psychoactive)*
