

HEALTHY GRASS-FED WHEY PROTEIN

*to help repair and build muscle

Specially formulated with two dynamic forms of whey protein (isolate and concentrate), arguably the best protein for supporting and promoting muscle tissue. Research shows that whey protein helps increase lean body mass, strength and muscle size, and helps repair and build muscle tissue when used in combination with strength training. HEALTHY GRASS-FED WHEY PROTEIN comes from dairy cows that have a 100% grass-fed diet. This product provides an excellent profile of amino acids, representing the next generation in natural protein supplementation.
