The Circulation Superfood

Beetroot extract contains high levels of naturally occurring nitrates and betanins that improve overall blood flow and act as precursors to nitric oxide production. Beetroot extract:

- Supports Nitric Oxide Levels
- Supports Brain Functions
- Supports Energy & Athletic Performance
- Supports Cardiovascular Health

21:1 Beetroot Concentrate

Organically Grown in the USA

BioBeet[®] is a highly concentrated beetroot extract with a 21:1 concentration. Our beets are grown in the USA in mineral and nutrient-rich croplands. The beetroots are cold-pressed, extracted, and CO2 dried at ambient temperatures using bioactive dehydration. The beetroot extract is in 100% raw form, maintaining its full enzymatic activity while preserving bioactive nutrients.
