ALPHA LIPOIC ACID

*Helps eliminate free radicals in the body

100 mg • 180 Capsules

Alpha Lipoic Acid is a nutritional coenzyme that is involved in energy metabolism of proteins, carbohydrates and fats, has physiological functions in blood glucose disposal, and is able to scavenge a number of free radicals. This powerful antioxidant may provide both preventive and therapeutic benefits in numerous conditions and diseases including diabetes, heart disease and even possible viruses.

Suggested Use as a Dietary Supplement: Take one capsule twice daily with meals, or as directed by physician.
