What does your body need?

Deal with everyday stress

Relax the mind

Reduction of sleeplessness

Fatigue reduction

Why Stress Shield® Nighttime?

Sleep is vital for the body. During sleep, the body restores its energy, supports its immune system's renewal, as well as recovers from the stress of the day. Without quality sleep, your body may not be able to fully recover and perform at its maximum potential the next day.

Stress Shield® Nighttime is a unique multi-ingredient complex designed to support the body's ability to deal with stress while encouraging sleep

Triple Action Approach (Melatonin-Free)

- Supports sleep*
The combination of Sensoril® Ashwagandha and L-theanine reduces occasional sleeplessness and elevates the presence of alpha waves in the brain that support calmness, and sleep, respectively. Other well-known botanicals have been added to round out this formula.
- Supports relaxation*
Includes 150 mg L-Theanine which has been shown to effectively relax the mind and 200 mg of GABA, an amino acid primarily known for relaxing the body's central nervous system.Δ
- Helps alleviate the effects of stress*
Includes 250 mg of clinically studied Sensoril® Ashwagandha which has been shown to effectively equip the body to deal with stress & irritability and diminish occasional tension.Δ
