

Rx Vitamins' Chewable Licorice is a standardized extract of deglycyrrhizinated licorice (DGL). DGL must be chewed in order to promote optimum absorption and maximum benefit. Licorice has a long history of health related benefits and is listed as an approved herb in the German Commission E Monographs. Each tablet maximizes the synergistic benefits of the whole root, which naturally contains flavonoids, isoflavonoids and coumarins.

Contains no yeast, dairy, eggs, gluten, corn, wheat, starch, salt, artificial colors or preservatives.
