DESCRIPTION

Dihydromyricetin or Amelopsin, is a natural flavonoid compound found in plants. Reportedly, for centuries in Asia, it has been used to support the body against minor illness symptoms. Dihydromyricetin is believed to support healthy liver and brain function and aid the liver in processing alcohol. Dihydromyricetin helps your body rehydrate after an evening out.†

Our water soluble herbal extracts are best mixed in juice or a smoothie, although mixing in water is perfectly fine if you can tolerate the taste.
