DESCRIPTION

Polyrhachis Ant (Black Mountain Ant) Extract is one of the premier ancient Chinese tonics with a history of use spanning 3,000 years. It has been named the "Herb of Kings" and for good reason. It is a nutritionally dense superfood containing large amounts of protein, vitamins, minerals and potent antioxidants.

Our water soluble, premium grade herbal extracts, are best mixed in juice or a smoothie, although mixing in water is perfectly fine if you can tolerate the taste."
