

What am I?

I'm a blend of organic curcumin tablets made from turmeric (A.K.A Curcuma longa) and black pepper - and that's it! I'm not your average turmeric supplement, because I don't need fillers and only contain those 2 ingredients. P.S. Black pepper can increase absorption of turmeric by up to 2000% #spiceupyourlife!

How can I help?

Curcumin (that's me!) supports the body's proper response to everyday joint stress[†] and supports the health of the cardiovascular system![†] I'm also a source of natural antioxidants which assist in fighting free radicals.[†]
