Amino acids are present in the approximate proportions in which they occur in the protein fraction of glandular tissue. This blend is produced by a special process which yields only the high purity amino acids. Contains no sugar, yeast, corn, wheat, soy, artificial colors or preservatives.

WARNING: Contains phenylalanine. Should not be used by patients with the congenital condition Phenylketonuria (PKU). All babies born in the U.S. are tested for this condition after birth. This may not be the case in other countries.
