Sanhelios® Curbita™ Bladder Caps
European Pumpkinseed Oil 1000 mg Healthy bladder function is crucial to a person's mobility and overall quality of living.
In searching for a nutritional alternative, Sanhelios® found that the oil derived from a special species of pumpkinseed, Curbita™, provides a unique ability to help enhance bladder function.*
Curbita™'s precious ingredients support the entire system of bladder muscles. It supports normal emptying of the bladder because Curbita™ has a calming and harmonizing effect on the function of bladder muscles.
This leads to a strengthening of the functional-urinary system for men and women.*
Composition: Each soft gel capsule contains 1000 mg of pure Curbita™ oil derived from a special cucurbita pepo pumpkin fruit, the first pumpkinseed oil that meets Sanhelios® standards.
Application: Support for healthy bladder function for men and women.*
