SNS Leucine Powder can be cost effectively used by weight lifters, endurance athletes, and other individuals looking to improve recovery and or/lean muscle. L-Leucine also supports protein synthesis and exerts anti-catabolic effects, which makes it ideal for individuals looking to build or retain lean muscle while dieting. Each container of L-Leucine contains 100 servings, which makes it an excellent option for those looking to try L-Leucine for the first time, or for those looking to make L-Leucine a staple in their ongoing supplement regimens. L-Leucine can be stacked with SNS Beta Alanine, Focus XT™, or other select Serious Nutrition Solutions products for improved synergistic results. †
