

Directions: Take one teaspoon or add to water, juices, smoothies, or favorite recipes. One heaping teaspoonful is equivalent to about 1/4 cup of berries. Feel the power of real, unaltered berries—the power of trapped sunlight. Use daily to support a healthy immune system.*

Elder-C is the potency of air-dried elderberries plus wild, raw camu camu powder. Each serving of Elder-C contains over 110 mgs of vitamin C, 150% of the RDI. Elder-C is ideal for supporting a healthy immune and respiratory response.* These elderberries are a top source of flavonoids and anthocyanins in their most potent form.
