

Directions: Take one or two T. daily. Add to juice, water, or over salads. Makes a nutritious drink added to pure spring water (1/2 ounce per 8 ounces).

Dand-o-Max is maximum strength, because it's made from only raw, wild dandelion root and leaves, plus miscellaneous wild, raw greens, all handpicked from remote, wild northern forests. This is the only raw dandelion root extract available. Dand-o-Max is a powerful cleanse, with the potency that only raw dandelion root and leaves can provide. Known as Taraxacum officinalis, which means an official, high-level herbal therapy, wild dandelion is a natural source of riboflavin, niacin, and potassium. Plus, the root is rich in special waxes, including taraxacum, which support a healthy liver, gallbladder, and more.* Since it is raw the enzymes are intact. A remote-source whole food, it's free of all chemicals, solvents, and additives.
