PERFORMIX®

PERFORMIX®

PERFORMIX® is a fitness movement; a collection of like-minded leaders dedicated to creating a virtuous circle of empowerment, empathy, aspiration and inspiration through fitness. We seek to inspire those who join our movement to believe in a more perfect version of themselves. Whether with our products, PERFORMIX House, or FitOps Foundation, we believe that we are most human and most alive when we are striving for more at the apex of failure and success. We don't accept the norm. We strive to disrupt it.

WHEN YOU BUY PERFORMIX®, YOU SUPPORT THE FITOPS FOUNDATION

The FitOps Foundation is the purpose that fuels PERFORMIX®. The transition for armed forces members from service into civilian life can sometimes come with a loss of purpose and identity. Fitness and service share the pillars of leadership, physicality and accountability. Having served himself, PERFORMIX® CEO Matt Hesse recognized the opportunity to transform the lives of veterans through fitness by certifying them as elite personal trainers, thus helping them find purpose again through meaningful careers in fitness.

If you or someone you know may be a candidate for FitOps or you want to get involved in our mission, please visit FitOps.org.
