A centuries-old super root used in traditional plant-based medicine, maca can support everything from hormonal health, to energy and endurance.* Grown in the lush Andean mountains of Peru, Viva Naturals Organic Maca Powder is gelatinized, finely milled into a more tummy-friendly form than the raw variety. Use it to add earthy, toasted flavor to your favorite foods and drinks.

How to enjoy it:

Blend into fruit or veggie-based smoothies for a natural energy kick.*

Bake a little maca into cakes, cookies, and other treats to bring out its unique butterscotch-like and earthy flavor.

Add to your favorite teas and lattes for a South American twist on a morning staple.
