

Country Life's Aller-Max® is a unique complex based on the key ingredients of Quercetin, Bromelain, and Vitamin C. Quercetin is a naturally occurring non-citrus bioflavonoid derived from flower buds. Bromelain is an enzyme derived from pineapple stem. Aller-Max® also provides Vitamin C as well, alongside herbs like Stinging Nettle and Cayenne.

CAUTION: Not for use by pregnant or lactating women. If you are taking medication, have a medical condition (including gastrointestinal disorders), or planning a surgery, consult a doctor before using this product. Stop using and consult a doctor if any adverse reactions occur.
