

Ulcinex® is a standardized herbal formula traditionally used throughout China to provide soothing relief of occasional heartburn, acid indigestion, and upset stomach. Featuring herbs such as licorice, corydalis, and bletilla, Ulcinex is designed to support the stomach's natural protective mechanisms, help maintain a healthy microecology in the stomach, and promote a healthy stomach lining.

Ulcinex is prepared using ultramodern extraction technologies and analytical techniques to ensure batch-to-batch consistency for predictable results.
