Goji berries and Schizandra fruit are two of the most powerful broad-spectrum tonic herbs in the world. For over 2000 years, these two herbal superfruits have been extracted together, and consumed as an adaptogenic elixir that supports healthy-aging and a clear mind. Because of their natural synergy, the combination is more powerful than either herb individually. The flavor is rich, fruity and exotic. It may be consumed daily throughout one's lifetime to provide invaluable nutritional factors available from no other foods or herbs in the world.*
