Supreme Protector is a full body protective formula composed of the four supreme protective herbs in Chinese herbalism. Reishi is the ultimate full spectrum immune modulator, particularly beneficial to the cardiovascular and nervous systems. Astragalus provides a protective energy (Wei Qi) that circulates just under the skin and in the muscle to form a protective shield. Cordyceps excels in strengthening the primal Kidney and Lung functions that include sexual, brain, structural and immune modulating functions. Schizandra excels at supporting the skin's protective role against sun and wind, and supports the Liver, the organ that detoxifies the body. *
