

Arterosil® HP supports a strong and vital glycocalyx*—the micro thin gel lining that protects your veins and arteries. A healthy glycocalyx is essential to the health of your blood vessels.* Daily use of Arterosil delivers the building blocks necessary to strengthen this natural protective barrier.*

Arterosil® HP is scientifically shown to support artery health by:

- Helping preserve normal, protective artery function*
- Slowing the normal change of artery walls caused by aging, genetics and lifestyle choices*
- Maintaining healthy cholesterol within the normal range*
