

EXPERIENCE THE INCREDIBLE POWER OF NO2 RED EXTREME™

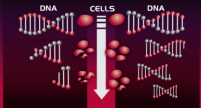

NO2 RED EXTREME™ delivers what you want most - a nitric oxide rush. Five full phases of nitric oxide (NO) amplification plus a niacin-fueled rush drives extreme hemodilation. As each phase drives NO higher and higher, niacin launches "real time", muscle-tingling waves of sub-surface circulation.*

Then, the power of Hemobolics engages to channel growth-inducing nutrients that may help trigger muscle cell replication. These advanced compounds help boost muscle protein synthesis.*

Simultaneously, the power of L-Carnitine is unleashed to drive performance on two, dramatic fronts. First, L-Carnitine shuttles fat deep into the skeletal muscle to be burned as a rich source of metabolic energy-generating fuel. Second, clinical research additionally shows that L-Carnitine helps reduce muscle soreness associated with high-intensity induced muscle damage.*

CORE INGREDIENTS HELP DEFEND HARD-EARNED MUSCLE*

"TYPICAL" DAMAGE WITH KEY INGREDIENTS

High intensity training helps trigger muscle growth. Unfortunately, it also induces oxidative stress that can "attack" and degrade the protective factor that preserves muscle cells. Over time, this factor can weaken muscle cell viability. Now, these critical "defenders" of muscle cell viability may be supported by key ingredients in the NO2 RED EXTREME™ formula. The left sequence demonstrates "typical" muscle cell "degradation" over time, due to training induced oxidative stress. The right sequence represents what may occur when key ingredients are used to help bolster cellular integrity. This supports a greater potential to defend and preserve hard-earned gains.*
