

REGAINS MAX by Revolution Science is a blend of 8 POWERFUL ingredients that help support the body's natural production of human growth hormone (HGH). Higher levels of HGH are associated with increased lean muscle mass, increased strength, decreased body fat, strong bones & joints, increased energy/endurance, increased metabolism, and fast recovery. REGAINS MAX also contains melatonin which, in addition to supporting HGH levels, helps promote optimal sleep and a balanced circadian rhythm.*
