

The fast pace of modern life in combination with ever-increasing levels of social and professional competition requires that we perform our best at all times whether in the office, at the gym, or in the bedroom. To help men maintain an active and fulfilling lifestyle that celebrates their manhood we developed Libido-Max for Active Men.

Boost-Performance: Red Ginseng, Long Jack, and Horny Goat Weed are commonly featured in traditional formulations designed to support sexual vitality, male performance, and feelings of energy. We've strategically combined these botanicals with L-Arginine, an amino acid precursor to Nitric Oxide—your body's primary blood flow inducing molecule.

Boost-Vitality: Adaptogens are a special class of botanicals that help the body combat the negative effects of daily stress. Maca Root and Ashwagandha are some of Nature's most reliable traditional herbs that have gained wide popularity in modern times for their ability to support overall vitality.

Testosterone Support: This product delivers 10mg of Boron per daily serving. Preliminary research shows that this amount of daily Boron consumption helps to support healthy testosterone levels already within the normal range while also conferring additional benefits to male physiology.

Use daily for best results.
