

INDICATIONS: Take 2 capsules before meals, preferably with morning and evening meals.

Malic/Mag Complex™ is a rich source of Malic Acid and Magnesium. These nutrients are essential energy-producers in many cells of the body, including muscles. Malic Acid found in apples and many other fruits, including raspberries, is an energy-producing metabolic process known as the Krebs Cycle. Magnesium is an essential cofactor for the production of energy in muscles. Malic Acid and Magnesium have been found effective for relieving muscle soreness and increasing athletic ability. It is a full nutrient blend, FDA-Registered Facility using Good Manufacturing Practices (GMPs).

FASTER ENERGY: Do not use this product if reported for heart-artery calcification or kidney.

Keep tightly sealed.

Store at room temperature (59-86°F / 15-30°C).

Other ingredients: Cellulose, calcium carbonate, vegetable magnesium stearate.
