At Core Nutritionals® we take round the clock nutrition very seriously. We feed our bodies when we wake up, before and after we train, and other meals throughout the day to stay nourished. The one meal that should never go unnoticed, however, is that meal you are searching for right before bed. This is when the proverbial "sweet tooth" can rear its ugly head and have you searching your pantry for just about anything.

Core PUDD'N is a better solution and can satisfy any sweet craving. With a thick and creamy texture coming from a high quality casein protein blend, along with added inclusions for a dessert like experience, you're going to be treating your body to everything it craves in one sweet and delicious PUDD'N. In addition to tasting ridiculously delicious, this before bed or anytime snack has the perfect slow-digesting protein blend to help aid recovery and fuel your muscles.*
