

YES, Calcium does more than contribute to bone health.[†]

Its involved in body processes like regulating heartbeat, blood pressure, even metabolism.[†]

So as you continue to take Calciology™ you'll begin to understand why our formula is so revolutionary. Because the calcium you're taking will finally be getting where it needs to go.[†] Your bones will thank you.

Every cell in your body will thank you.

And that's a good feeling.
