

Raspberry Ketone Extract Powder

Net Wt
1 lb (454 g)

Our Raspberry Ketone Powder is a 99% extract meaning each serving contains greater than 99% concentration of raspberry ketones. Red raspberries, also known botanically as Rubus Idaeus, are native to Europe. Due to their ability to grow in temperate climates, red raspberries are now grown in many countries including the United States, Poland, Germany, and Chile. Their sweet and delicious flavor make them a popular berry all over the world.

Suggested Use:

Take 1/2 teaspoon (1000 mg) with food once or twice daily.
