

Suggested Use: Mix 1 scoop daily in 8 oz. of water or other liquid.

The ancient art of fermentation helps to create some of the most easily digestible and bioavailable nutrients for optimal health. The Qultured™ Process is a fermentation process that can increase the nitrate level up to two times that found in regular beets.

- Provides a natural source of organic nitrates to support optimal nitric oxide function and organic betaine*
- Supports athletic performance and vitality*
- Whole, organic beet root that has been fermented

Qultured™ is a proprietary fermentation process.
