

CATALO Extra Grape Seed Extract

This extract is made from natural red grapes by advanced technology. It contains the potent kind of Polyphenols, Proanthocyanidins (OPC), that protects body cells from damages by harmful free radicals and delays aging. OPC is a very powerful antioxidant which strengthens blood vessels, promotes heart and cardiovascular health. It can also repair collagen, lighten the skin, delay the onset of skin aging and support eye health.

Main Functions:

- Strengthen blood vessels, maintain cardiovascular health
- Promote better blood circulation and eliminate uric acid
- Lighten skin and delay skin aging
- Improve sharpness of vision

Suitable for: Concerned about cardiovascular health, drinkers and smokers, under stress, exposed to environmental or air pollutants, long hours under the sun, frequent mobile phone users, desire for beautiful skin, concerned about uric acid
