

BioFence is a mushroom & herb-based formula with a "Bronchial Support System" designed to support immunity & respiratory function. It combines:

Larch Tree Extract, a fibre-rich complex that ferments in the gut & supports the body's natural immune response.*

Maitake & Reishi (Lingzhi) Mushrooms to help activate adaptive immunity that helps maintain healthy bronchial & respiratory function*

Astragalus Root to bolster our body's natural defenses, fight fatigue & stimulate anti-oxidant activity in the body.*

Elderberry which is high in Vitamin C, to aid respiratory health, help manage stress and promote efficient nutrient absorption.*

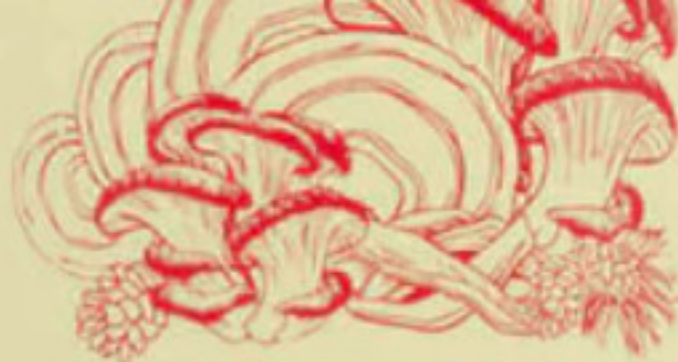

Black Seed Oil for encouraging healthy immune responses.*
