Ancient Triple-Spice Formula

In the lush surroundings of southern India and Sri Lanka the most aromatic spices known are hand-harvested. Triple-Spice Golden Latte is a combination of certified wild, organic turmeric powder plus certified organic, true Sri Lanka cinnamon and wild, organic ginger. That's why Triple-Spice Golden Latte makes the most delicious, fragrant turmeric milk possible, known as Golden Milk. Dense in powerful phytochemicals, our rich Triple-Spice Golden Latte is a unique, potent spice complex; commercial types cannot compare. Made by traditional methods, this organic turmeric is ultra-high in special, potent aromatic oils, the turmerones. Organic ginger is high in novel compounds known as gingerols. Triple-Spice Golden Latte supports a healthy inflammation response plus a healthy digestive response.* The turmeric in Triple-Spice Golden Latte is dense in curcumin, at 5% or greater. This is why it is so delicious and makes the most luscious, healthy turmeric milk possible. Enjoy it also in food. It's the power of the organic spice miracle—enjoy for your better health, hot or cold.

Ancient Golden Milk

- 1 cup nut milk or milk of your choice
- 1 tsp. Golden Latte
- 1 tsp. organic butter or coconut fat
- 1 or 2 tsp. raw honey or raw yacon syrup

On medium heat bring mixture of milk and Triple-Spice Golden Latte to just before boiling. Simmer on low heat for five minutes or more, stirring occasionally. When done, add fat, sweeten as desired and serve.
