

White Dragon Matcha

Deep green, soft, young leaves from shade-covered tea shoots are picked, dried, steamed and ground. The whole leaf is used and makes a sacred, antioxidant + nutrient-rich tea to be served warm or cool and integrated into daily rituals, recipes, meditations and magical moments.*

Invitations for Use

Add 1/2 teaspoon to your favorite cup or bowl with an ounce of room temperature water. Whisk lightly... Fill remainder of cup 2/3 full with water (warm or cool) and whisk in a zigzag pattern until frothy with love. Makes an excellent addition to smoothies, shakes, raw cakes, even face masks!
