

LONGEVITY™
MEDICAL CLINIC

IMMUNE FACTOR E

A DIETARY SUPPLEMENT

120 Capsules

Exclusively manufactured for:

LONGEVITY  MEDICAL CLINIC™

The unique blend of powerful immune-supporting herbal extracts in this formula promotes the body's natural defenses through various mechanisms. Standardized extracts of two Echinacea species support macrophages and aid in healthy antibody production to promote a healthy immune response. Andrographolides in Andrographis provide immune and respiratory support properties. Berberine, a major alkaloid found in Coptis chinensis, not only has direct immune-supporting activity, but also supports healthy blood sugar metabolism, fat metabolism, and cardiovascular function.*
