About: Hi-Lyte's advanced electrolyte formulation is scientifically balanced to help minimize heat stress and muscle cramping. It was formulated to resemble the electrolyte profile lost through sweat: sodium, potassium, calcium and magnesium. It also includes key supporting ingredients that improve bioavailability and enzyme function for the most complete electrolyte formula available.

This product is designed for serious rehydration for endurance athletes, outdoor workers and those who suffer from dehydration due to illness, medication or even hangover.

- Replaces Electrolytes lost in Sweat*
- Improves Endurance & Stamina*
- Helps Prevent Muscle Cramps & Spasms*
- Easy to Swallow & Easy on Stomach*
