

Suggested Usage: Take 1 level teaspoon 1 to 2 times daily mixed in 8 oz. of water or other liquid. Mix well.

NOW® Mushroom Immune Renew has been specifically formulated to support the immune system with standardized astragalus extract and a specialized mushroom and mycelial biomass blend.* Our blend has been optimized for the characteristic mushroom polysaccharides known as beta-glucans. Mushroom beta-glucans have been long respected and scientifically studied for their immune system supporting properties.* Astragalus has been included to complement our mushroom blend due to its ability to support a healthy immune system response.*
