

Perfect Desiccated Liver is obtained solely from healthy free range cows that feed exclusively on rapidly growing green grass that sprouts from rich Argentinean soil. Perfect cows are raised entirely free of hormones and never come into contact with pesticides, or any other chemical substances. Perfect Desiccated Liver is a natural source of high quality protein, amino acids, vitamin A, B vitamins, and iron.*

This product is manufactured in a facility that processes milk, egg, soy, tree nuts, fish, and shellfish.
