

Fulvic - the ingredient that makes Cal-Mag Liquid special!

To be the best requires a unique formulation of the most effective ingredient forms, mild processing that doesn't damage nutrients, and superior potencies. Unite those features with FULVIC and you facilitate the kind of absorption that makes every ingredient a powerhouse on the cellular level. Fulvic supercharges nutrients and then carries them right through cell membranes with ease. It enables unique bio-reactions and transmutations that can only occur when Fulvic is present.

Fulvic, combined with all-natural lithothamnion red algae calcium, makes it unsurpassed for preserving healthy bone structure and maintaining normal healing functions.*

To go a step further in sustaining bone mass, Cal-Mag Liquid also contains essential co-factor ingredients Vitamin D3, K2, L-Lysine, Boron, and Vegetal Bamboo Silica; all powerful components for normal bone strength. Just one more reason the extraordinary combination of ingredients in Cal-Mag Liquid are more effective.*

- Beneficial sweetener - Stevia
- Ingredients that promote natural collagen formation and support healthy bone integrity*
- Promotes normal sound restful sleep, and muscle relaxation*
- Plus ... It tastes GREAT!
