

ANNATTO VITAMIN E DELTA/GAMMA TOCOTRIENOLS

With up to 60x greater antioxidant potential than tocopherols, tocotrienols are the most potent form of vitamin E found in nature. Groovy Bee® Annatto Vitamin E Delta/Gamma Tocotrienols is derived from the annatto plant, the best naturally occurring source of vitamin E with an ideal composition of delta- and gamma-tocotrienols. This superior form of vitamin E can support your overall cardiovascular and metabolic health. It contains no GMOs or gluten and is highly bioavailable, non-toxic and non-China. It is also lab tested for glyphosate, heavy metals and microbiology.
