SUPERFOOD GREENS MAGNIFIED

WITH POWERFUL TRACE MINERALS

Ormus Supergreens are grown in pristine, ancient volcanic lowlands. Similar to the Ancient Nile's river banks, they are continually being replenished by the region's high mountain river. Our patented cool-drying system protects this raw superfood's heat-sensitive bio-active phytonutrients, conserving nature's delicate balance of essential oils, enzymes, vitamins, and minerals. Ormus Supergreens are extremely high in superoxide dismutase: an anti-aging longevity enzyme.*

What is Ormus?

Ormus elements are monoatomic minerals protected by nature in volcanic soil and primitive seabeds. Ormus was called "The Food of the Gods" by the Ancient Egyptians. Recognized for its vibrational qualities to detoxify and nourish the pineal gland, Ormus is also known as the "Essence of Life."*
