5 Probiotic Strains to Support Digestive Health†

Probiotics are beneficial bacteria that are normally found in our digestive system, and are important for supporting the intestinal flora. The majority of our immune system is closely tied to our digestive tract, making it even more important to support proper gut health.† Just one capsule of our Multi-Flora Probiotic contains five different, well-researched strains of "good" bacteria.† To guarantee 8 billion active cells at the Best By Date, we encapsulate 16 billion cells at time of manufacture.

CONTAINS NO artificial colors, flavors or preservatives; no wheat, eggs, peanuts, tree nuts, crustacean shellfish or fish.

Store in the refrigerator at all times, before and after opening. We Guarantee Our Supplements for Potency and Purity To report a serious adverse event, call 1-888-710-0006
