PIPERINE EXTRACT POWDER

(95% Piperine)

Piperine is the active compound found in small amounts in black pepper. With a long history of uses, piperine is best known to support the absorption of other nutrients. In fact, piperine is often referred to as "the ingredient that makes the foods you eat work better."

Suggested Use:

Add 10 mg to any herb, spice, smoothie, or other healthy nutrients to improve bioavailability.

CAUTION:

Do not take with medication.
