ResVitale™ | Brain Science™

Brain Science™ combines our patent-pending Resveratrol Polyphenol Complex™ with working memory supporting Cereboost®, a clinically studied extract of American Ginseng. Our powerful dual-ingredient formula can help temporarily boost working memory performance, as well as promote antioxidant activity that helps protect against oxidative stress and free radical attack.[§]

^ΔU.S. Patent Pending 61/390,366
Cereboost® is a registered trademark of Naturex.

THE ART Harnessing the power of trans-resveratrol, this dual ingredient formula delivers support for working memory with scientifically studied Cereboost® while the antioxidant activity from resveratrol helps protect against oxidative stress.[§]

THE BENEFITS Derived from Panax quinquefolius L. root, performance-supporting Cereboost® is a clinically studied, patent-pending extract with a powerful and unique profile standardized to 10% ginsenosides.[§]

THE PROOF A human clinical pilot study shows that one 200 mg serving of Cereboost® may help support working memory.[§]
