

SUGGESTED USE

Take one serving (2 capsules) of Organ Shield® daily to promote antioxidant activity in your body. If desired, you may use an additional serving later in the day for additional effects.†

ALWAYS USE PROTECTION

Organ Shield® is a unique blend of antioxidants, polyphenols, and phytosterols explicitly formulated to support your body's vital organs against the negative side effects of strenuous training. This free radical fighting complex can help support and promote healthy liver, prostate and cardiac function already within healthy range. This blend of specific antioxidants, flavanoids and phytonutrients scavenges free radicals, supporting healthy cell development and damaged cell repair. 365 days a year, whether on-season or off-season, this is a must have for any serious athlete's arsenal.†
