

NEVER BIG ENOUGH™

When 'Merica Labz first debuted, we set the bar for inclusions in protein. Massive pieces of cereal, cookies, literal marshmallows? Yeah, we did that. We did that to provide you, a true patriot, with the sustenance that you need. What's a company to do when it sets the bar? Smash the bar, repeatedly, then step over it with the newest evolution. The new generation of Patriot's Whey not only includes the inclusions you know and love, but the flavor is refined, more sophisticated - like a dude with a mullet wearing a tuxedo. So enjoy, patriot, knowing that you are downing the finest protein this country has to offer.†
