Asian Ginseng's use has surged in Western cultures where its effect on physical and mental energy and stamina complements busy, stress-filled lifestyles.* Herb Pharm's Asian Ginseng is made from dried, white (uncured) roots that have been specifically extracted to yield a broad and balanced spectrum of ginsenosides and related compounds.

Asian (Panax) Ginseng is one of the world's most popular and widely-studied herbs. In Asia, where its use dates back thousands of years, this adaptogenic herb is regularly used as a rejuvenating tonic to increase energy and vitality.
