Elderberry and Andrographis have long been used in Ayurvedic and European herbal systems to support both innate and adaptive immunity. Modern studies confirm that they exert antioxidant activity and increase levels of immune cells while also supporting respiratory health and healthy inflammatory responses. IMMUNIN-6™ delivers the full doses used in these studies and adds the world's most highly absorbed forms of Vitamin C (PUREWAY-C™), Zinc (picolinate), vegan Vitamin D (Vitashine™) and selenium. Together, these ingredients form a truly profound immune supplement, supporting:

- ✓ Healthy immune response*
- ✓ Healthy T-Cell production*
- ✓ Healthy inflammatory response*
- ✓ Respiratory health*
